PUBLIC NOTIFICATION

As a property owner within one of Houston's proposed or designated Historic Districts, please be advised that the City of Houston is proposing amendments to the Historic Preservation Ordinance that are aimed at protecting historic properties within an historic district. Key provisions include the elimination of the 90 day waiver for historic properties when a Certificate of Appropriateness is denied by the Houston Archaeological and Historical Commission, revising the historic district designation process and clarifying appropriate building materials.

Public meetings in the community will be held to receive comments on the proposed amendments. Information about these meetings and a draft of the proposed ordinance can be found online at www.houstontx.gov/planning/HistoricPres/hist_pres.html. Any recommended changes will be considered by the Houston Archeological and Historical Commission, the Planning Commission and City Council before adoption.
